PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

As Victoria School's principal, I am delighted to work with a great student body and a talented staff as we continue our journey through another school year. In our excellent teaching and learning environment, students and staff experience many exciting, challenging and rewarding times.

Victoria's theatrical, musical, dance, art and video productions succeed because of your energy and creative fuel. During the 2002-2003 school year, we completed a season of captivating performances and exhibitions that entertained thousands of audience members. Together, we will continue a tradition of excellence and embark on new ventures.

Vic students continue to meet the challenges of achieving in academics and the arts. This focus, combined with structure and self-statement, allows students to pursue their interest in the arts while challenging themselves to excel academically. Students continue to meet and exceed academic achievement test averages while presenting incredible visual and new media arts, theatre, dance and music productions. I commend our highly skilled, dedicated staff who, in partnership with supportive parents and the community, help students achieve their maximum potential in a caring and creative environment.

I encourage those of you who return to Vic next year to be involved in the many activities that we offer. We strongly support the philosophy that we are educating the 'whole person'. We want students to share their energy and special talents with others. This yearbook is a celebration of this fact.

Students, I have one wish for you: Live your lives in such a way that reflects credit upon yourselves, your parents and your community. I echo the sentiments of all our staff when I say to you best wishes in all your future endeavors.

Thank you for joining us on this educational journey.

Ingrid Neitsch,
Principal

"Is not life a hundred times too short for us to bore ourselves."

-Nietzsche
When in doubt go for a walk, that's all I know. A walk is a true test of imagination, where everything begins; inspiration, conversation, and just plain old adventure. I've walked all over this city, so I think that it is time to travel...
Take a picture it will last longer.

I only hope that if any of us ever grow up, we aren't too brutish to remember what really happened here.

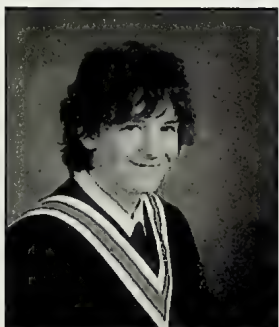

"I think [high-school life] is a very sad piece of buffoonery, because we have in us, without being able to ascertain how or why or from whom, the need to fool ourselves continuously by the spontaneous creation of a reality (one for each and never the same for everyone) that from time to time reveals itself to be vain or illusory."

We are finally moving on. Thanks to those who have impacted my life, especially: J.W., J.W., K.E., J.B., R.W., R.K., C.L., J.M., R.G-S., B.B-W. Thanks for being there for me, for keeping life in perspective, and for laughing with me. How is cockfighting irrelevant? Say what you mean, express an opinion, silence does nothing but repress.

To quote one of our wise Vic predecessors, "Don't overthink this one, kids." And to all you guys flippin through this yearbook countin the days till your Jostens picture is adorned with flowers and a hat- one thing is for sure: Nothing is forever. So have a good time doin what yer doin or get out. And don't let em scare you. It's your hallway too :)

It's been fun!!! I love all of my friends here at Vic...my B.V.C. sisters!!! I am so proud of you girls, dont give up. Remember never settle for less than your best. Represent ENUEM(pres)!!!! Serving is awesome, DO IT.

"Charity is like wetting the bed, everyone knows your doing it, but only you can feel the warmth." Be your best, live your life, work, this will lead to happyNess!! Choose The Right.

Carolyn Bell

There are two important lessons in life. One, the path of life is like the energizer bunny. It keeps going and going and going..... and two don't eat yellow snow I had a friend do that once, that wasn't good. Lot of luck and hope ya'll have an interesting and happy life.

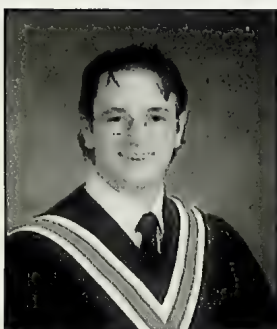

Terran Bell

It's been quite a ride, and I'm so glad that I've made some of the coolest friends around! Thanks to everyone who has made me smile, to the girls for sticking with me all these years, Zane for being my best friend, and to that Boy Wonder... who would've thought! Let's keep partying like it's the 80's, and now we can raise a glass to the future. Good luck everyone, we've only just begun...

You are educated. Your certification is in your degree. You may think of it as the ticket to the good life. Let me ask you to think of an alternative. Think of it as your ticket to change the world.

- Tom Brokaw

Darren Bennett

"Have you ever had a dream, that you were so sure was real? What if you were unable to wake from that dream? How would you know the difference between the dream world, and the real world?"

-The Matrix

To all my friends I met at vic, thank you for making this year a dream that i will never wake up from. You guys are the best.

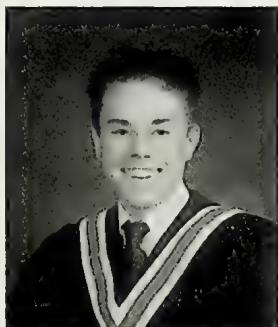

Lavinia Berndt

Mom, i wouldnt be here without you...thanks for your endless support and how you never stopped believing in me. The best of luck to everyone!

Life is no brief candle to me. I is a sort of splendid torch which I have got a hold of for the moment, and I want to make it burn as brightly as possible before handing it on to future generations.

- George Bernard Shaw

Fraser Betkowski

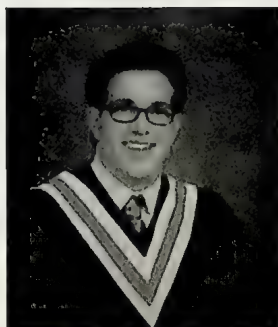

"If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with kings--nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the earth and everything that's in it..."

-Rudyard Kipling

Samantha Beveridge

6 years! BD, your shy bluntness always amuses me. LP, Montrose was only yesterday?! MP, I can always run to you. Watch out world, SET is coming! ML, my rock, I will never forget what you gave me. VR and EG, words don't do justice the impact you've had on me. Homemade Spares! Mole Babies! Harry Potter Sleepovers! Bathroom Parties! Zenari's Dinners! Life is too short. Live it, and live it well.

Brennan Blomme

Well, I made it! What a journey! I would just like to express my gratitude to all of my friends who helped me out through the good and bad times, and a special thanks to Princess for all the laughs during chemistry class, to Mr. D for the Soprano impersonations, and to "Bill" Panas for the ice cream cone bowling. Oh, and Eric, Stockton will always take Bibby to the hole! YEEEEEEAH BOY!!!!

Jordyn Bochon

People are so amazing if you think about it. Strange little animals with intricate rituals like going to the zoo, putting on glasses in the morning, or graduation. I think I've made some discoveries, kids. I'm not going to worry or stress anymore. I'll work up to the climax and do it all over again. I once read a quotation, "A day without laughter is a day wasted", that is what I live by. KUNGFUACTION!!

Melissa Bolton

Some people say you are going the wrong way, when it's simply a way of your own. To all those people: Don't be so humble, you are not that great. To all my friends I luv ya, you know who you are.

Daniela Borys

"Remember, if you ever need a helping hand, you'll find one at the end of your arm. As you grow older you will discover that you have two hands. One for helping yourself, the other for helping others." - Audrey Hepburn
For all who have entered my life, you have made this time the greatest adventure. Hannah you're always there for a laugh or even just a hug. Thank you all!

Ross Bowler

Taryn Boston

Why do you want to save,
The best for last.
We grow up so slowly,
And grow up so fast.
We don't talk about forever,
We just just catch it when can.
On the wing, on the wing,
If i grab onto the moment,
Don't let it slip away,
Out of my hands.
What about now?
Forget about tomorrow,
it's too far away.
What about now?
Don't talk of yesterday,
it's too far away.

-Robbie Robertson

Allison Bouthillier

"Sometimes a scream is better than a thesis."
-Emerson

Thanks to those who taught me how to scream. To all my friends and our crazy nerd fun. To my teachers, who taught me the "thesis" part of life: I could never thank you enough for teaching me how I can think.

"I live on the edge of danger, so close that it is cutting my feet, through my iron shoes of resolve."
-Steve Beckman

Jennifer Boyko

I can't believe it's over. I've waited years for this. It's funny to say that I learned so much more about friendships, love and mostly about myself than anything else. Without the love and support of my family I wouldn't have made it. Thank you.

"If you love somebody, let them go. If they return, they were always yours. If they don't, they never were"

-Anon

"If you judge people, you have no time to love them"

-Mother Theresa

Bryn Bratton Wall

"We had not yet been or seen our friends' selves chase tails round and round in downward spiral, leaving a trail of irretrievable vital life juice behind. And everything experimental till death was upon us. In our face, mortality." -RHCP

"you're only as loud as the noises you make i'm learning to laugh as hard as i can listen 'cause silence is violence in women and poor people if more people were screaming then i could relax"

To laugh often and much; to win the respect of intelligent people and the affection of children; to earn the appreciation of honest critics and endure the betrayal of false friends; to appreciate beauty, to find the best in others; to leave the world a little better; whether by a healthy child, a garden patch or a redeemed social condition; to know even one life has breathed easier because you have lived. This is the meaning of success.

Life at Vic has been awesome. My friends and family, I love you all, you're amazing. You've made 7 years fly by. I'll never forget the fun, laughter, tears, and memories. My teachers: thanks for pushing me to my full potential and never letting me give up. SC, MB, KC, you're the best. I'll never forget the impact you've made with your friendship, advice and love. KC: I'm amazed. Who ever thought school would be fun?

In these past 2 years I have collected memories that will last a lifetime. I met my best friends here. I found in myself what had always been there, commitment, love, trust, and compassion for all the people that I encounter. I can't begin to describe the way these people look, for they have dropped so securely into my heart that I cannot see them. Remember that confidence is armored, but hope runs naked.

I have learned many lessons about life here at Vic. Some have been harder to deal with than others. In the end, has it all been worth it? Definitely, I know who my true friends are, what to do in a bad situation, and how to truly appreciate the good things life has to offer. Thanks to all those who have stuck with me through good times and the bad. Take care of yourself, and keep the good memories close to your hearts.

In retrospect, it's surreal to see how things have worked out. It seems that never do all the things you envision remain true. However, one thing stands out in my mind after spending time at Vic. I've learned, whether or not you've lived up to your expectations, or if things have changed, you cannot remain living in the past and dwelling on such occasions, but instead reinvent your aspirations. Live for what could be.

Love takes hostages. It gets inside you. It eats you out and leaves you crying in the darkness, so a simple phrase like "maybe we should just be friends" turns into a glass splinter working its way into your heart. It hurts. All in all it's been super fun and I can't think of any other place or with any other people I'd rather have spent my grad year.

Acknowledgements: To my best friends, R.B., N.W., B.F., M.D., D.L., you guys are the greatest! To T.W., P.W., the guys at our table, and everyone else who had a good impact on my life: thank you for a fun three years! This year was just incredible. I'll miss the War Zone, Vimprov, the sportscasts, and especially the RBP Show. Remember, think about the future, but never forget your past. All the best.

These past 3 yrs have been the most stressful, tearful & happiest years of my life. TJ MB LH CW TISM & all the girls: my saviors. Couldn't have done this alone. MG: you stood beside me through it all. Thank God for you. All the guys: you rock my world. KM: my friend, my cuz, my sis. Thanks for 18 yrs of fellowship. Someone once said to me "I've got this store-bought way of saying 'I'm ok' & you've learned how to cry in total silence". You know who you are. Thanks

Over the past three years I have had the opportunity to meet many great people. And I want nothing more to stay in touch with everyone I have met along the way. I recently met someone who ended up being very important to me, and I have a lot of people to thank for that. I want to thank all my teachers, Mrs. Gilchrist, Mr. D.C., and Mr. Howe for encouraging me on my journey. I want to thank all my friends (you know who you are). I just want you all to realize how important you are to me. If I have learned something valuable here at Vic, it's that you can always reach a dream, no matter who u are, so go for it. So thank you everyone for introducing me to the most important person, ME.

Task: to summarise my high school experience in 75 words or less while being witty and insightful. Is this possible? Yes. One simple phrase covers it all: I came, I saw, I slept through most of it. On a more serious note, try not to remember me for what I did; remember me for who I was. I refuse to conform to non-conformity (deep n'est pas) I'm not suffering from insanity, I'm THOUROUGHLY enjoying it! Hell is hot, wear son screen. Talmudim ha'kadosh melafefonim. I want to be in the band!

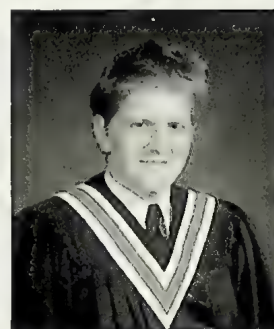

Melissa Teyema

Wow, what a year to remember. I know I'll never forget those "Adventures", white rabbits and ray-protector videos. J.F and N.H; you crank my tractor. A.P: diamonds really are a girls best friend. In conclusion, don't take life too seriously because you can't come out of it alive. Adios

I would like to thank everyone for the experiences that we've shared over these past five years, these have changed me for the best. To my close friends and the love of my life Matt, I love you and even when I'm grey I will still be thinking of you. It took me awhile to realize I will miss this place, now I'm afraid that feeling won't ever go away.

"The jump is so frightening between where I am & where I want to be, because of all I may become, I will close my eyes and leap." This = my entire existence @ Vic. Thanks D.C for inspiration, & pushing me to leap when I was afraid. I owe it to myself and those who believe in me, to follow my dreams. I have come a LONG way since grade 8, & I have Vic, family, & God to thank.
